

Your Family

should be provided with the well-known emergency medicine.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

The best remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. Prompt to act.

Sure to Cure

MR. TILLOTSON'S LOSS.

His House is Damaged to the Extent of $250—Another Fire Today.

City Attorney Tillotson's residence at 621 Fillmore street was damaged by fire to the extent of $250 this morning. The fire started from an unquenchable stove, and after burning the kitchen, which was an annex to the house, went to the roof of the main portion of the dwelling. It was stopped there, however, and none of the lower portion of the house in front was damaged save by water.

On the way to the fire the wheels of the house wagon, from station No. 4 caught in the street-car tracks in making a turn and the horses were thrown forcibly against an iron post. One of the horses had its head severely cut in a number of places. The front portion of the wagon was damaged in the going was broken. The alarm was sent in from box 32 at 10 o'clock.

There was another fire at 11:30 today. An alarm from box No. 9 called the firemen to "M" and Buchanan streets in North Topeka, where the two-story house owned and occupied by M. Madison had caught fire by a coal falling on the roof. The damage was about $10.

ROCK ISLAND ROUTE.

Harvest Excursions to Texas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory.

On November 20th, and Dec. 4th and 13th, we will sell round trip tickets to all points in above territory at one regular standard fare plus $2.00. This will also apply to points on the Pecos Valley Railway in New Mexico. Limit of tickets twenty days from day of sale.

On Nov. 11, 20 and 27 we will sell on account of Texas Cotton Palace at one fare for round trip—$17.45—good returning up to and including Dec. 5.

Winter tourist rates now on. Come in and talk with us. No trouble at all to answer questions.

E. O. CARVEY, Agent,
601 Kansas avenue.

A Remarkable Achievement in Rail-

road Affairs.
Was the running of the Exposition after the famous twenty-hour train between Chicago and New York, via the Lake Shore route, in service during the World's fair. A handsome litho-water-color of this train may be secured by sending ten cents in silver to E. K. Wilber, Western Passenger Agent, Chicago.

The New Map of Kansas.

Size 2x16 inches; in colors. Revised and corrected in every detail with all changes up to date. Each railroad by separate color; express companies and lines over which they operate; the distance between towns; each county in a distinct color; towns and streams correctly located. Compiled from official sources and absolutely reliable. By mail, prepaid, 10 cents (Stamps) Adams Bros., printers and publishers, Topeka.

One word describes it—"perfection." We refer to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, cures obstinate sores, burns, skin diseases and is a well known cure for piles. J. K. Jones.

Cochet's Challenge!
To prove "Cochet's Pine Expectant" will not "Knock Out" any cold or fever. It is GUARANTEED. For sale by all druggists; price 25 and 50c bottle.

Is Your Hair Dry and Brittle, Falling Out or Turning Gray?

These are only indications that the follicles on roots of the hair are getting weakened or diseased. Beggs' Hair Renewer will strengthen and invigorate the follicles and the hair will regain its natural color and become soft, glossy and healthy. Sold by W. H. Kennedy.

Silver Leaf vinegar remains in the front. It is the best table and pickling vinegar. Ask your grocer for it and take no other. It is the cheapest.

THE STATE JOURNAL'S Want and Miscellaneous columns reach each working day in the week more than twice as many Topeka people as can be reached through any other paper. This is a fact.

For instance, Mrs. Chas. Rogers, of Bay City, Mich., recently applied scalding water over her little boy. She promptly applied De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, giving instant relief. It's a wonderfully good salve for burns, bruises, sores, and is a cure for Piles. J. K. Jones.

Spectacles and eyeglasses, 25 cents. " " " 50 " " " $1.00
CHAS. BENNETT'S Optical store, 713 Kansas avenue.

The STATE JOURNAL'S Want and Miscellaneous columns reach each working day in the week more than twice as many Topeka people as can be reached through any other paper. This is a fact.

Peerless Steam Laundry — Peerless Steam Laundry.

Prescott & Co. have removed to No. 118 West Eighth street.

The Daily STATE JOURNAL prints all the news.

Rock Island Playing Cards. No. 601 Kansas Ave.

New neck bands put on your shirts at TOPEKA STEAM LAUNDRY.

Window Glass at Holme's Drug Store.

Rock Island Playing Cards. No. 601 Kansas Ave.

Good work done by the Peerless.

FOUGHT A GOOD FIGHT

A Testimonial Proposed for Dr. Parkhurst by New Yorkers.

They Credit Him With the Purification of Politics.

TO ENDOW A CHAIR.

Parkhurst Chair of Municipal Reform at Columbia.

The Committee of Seventy Now Considering the Matter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—It has been suggested, and may be carried out, that as a testimonial to the Rev. Dr. Parkhurst for the work he has performed in bringing about the purification of politics in New York, a chair be endowed in Columbia college in his honor. It is proposed to call it the Parkhurst chair of municipal reform, and to install Dr. Parkhurst as its first professor.

If the proposition takes tangible form $100,000 will be devoted to the endowment. Today the subject will be taken up and discussed by the committee of seventy, before which body the suggestion was laid.

SERVICES FOR THE CZAR.

President and Mrs. Cleveland Carry Candles at the Washington Ceremony.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Profusely impressive services were held at the Russian legation here today in memory of Czar Alexander III., whose remains now lie in state at Moscow.

President Cleveland and the entire cabinet, except Postmaster General Bassett, attended, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and the cabinet ladies. The foreign ambassadors and ministers with their extensive suites, wearing their rich official and court dress were present in a body, lending brilliant color to the solemn occasion.

Alexander Bayard and ex-Secretary Foster were also there. As no Greek church exists in Washington the parlors of the legation were for the time being transferred into a place of worship, with an altar for the celebration of the mass and ritual, Greek fashion.

The services began at 8 o'clock with mass, celebrated by Bishop Nicholas, of the Russian Greek church, assisted by a Greek monk and two attendants. The services lasting till 10 o'clock were in private, being attended only by Prince Cantacuzene, the Russian minister, his daughter and the officials of the Russian legation.

At 10 o'clock the chants and prayers of the repose of the czar's soul began in the presence of the president, members of the cabinet and diplomatic corps. As each participant in the ceremonies arrived he was given a wax candle to burn throughout the service. Prince Cantacuzene, not President and Mrs. Cleveland at the doorway and escorted them to places immediately alongside the altar. The president and his wife each carried a candle, as did Secretary Sherman and all others present.

The service lasted half an hour, the candles being extinguished as the chants closed, after which Prince Cantacuzene escorted President and Mrs. Cleveland to the door and the other guests withdrew.

TEXAS' PLURALITY.

Calhoun is Elected Governor by Probably Forty Thousand.

GALVESTON, Nov. 9.—From the returns received here it is safe to state that the state Democratic ticket is elected by 40,000 plurality. Calhoun, candidate for governor, running about 10 per cent behind his ticket, because of his free silver views which many Democrats rebuked.

The congressional delegation will not be solidly Democratic. Newman (Rep.) of the twelfth district, is elected by 10,000 plurality. In the Sixth, Kearby, Populist is so close to Abbott, Democrat, that the official returns will be necessary to determine the result.

The same condition exists in the Thirteenth, where Gilliland, Populist, has the lead of three Democrats on a split ticket, and in the Seventeenth, where Barber, Populist, is slightly ahead of Pendleton, Democrat, as far as counted.

The cumbersome ballot law in cities and townships in rural districts, make the official count in doubt for the districts impossible to get before tomorrow. DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 9.—Incomplete returns from the Sixth district give Abbott, Dem., 17,023; Kearby, Pop., 16,921. Estimate of returns yet to come will hardly affect this. Abbott's majority over Kearby in 1892 was 1,835.

A TAWDRY PROCESSION.

The Glories of Lord Mayors Bay in London are Dying Out.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—There are many indications that the glories of Lord Mayors Bay are departing and that interest in the installation of the new lord mayor of London is dying out. The crowds which witnessed the procession today when as usual formed part of the installation of the lord mayor, Alderman Sir Joseph Reynolds were far smaller than usual.

In addition the decorations were tawdry and the procession itself was far from comparing with those of some years back. The day was mild and showery.

The regular lord mayor's banquet will take place this evening, and Lord Rosebery, the premier, will take this occasion to reply to the recent speech of Lord Salisbury, which, by the way, was a reply to Rosebery's utterances at Bradford on October 24.

Tennessee is Very Close.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 9.—The vote for governor is very close between Turney, Democrat, and Evans, Republican, and the official returns will be necessary to determine the result. The indications point to Evans' election.

If you have but a suit of clothes, bring the winner to Althen & McManus, tailors, 610 Kansas avenue, and get a good one for little money.

Rock Island Playing Cards. No. 601 Kansas Ave.

GORMAN ON THE DEFEAT.

He Thinks it Won't Be Lasting and Democracy Will Be All Right.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—Senator Arthur P. Gorman was seen at his home near Laurel yesterday by a representative of the American Union. The senator is improving in health and seemed in good spirits. When asked as to the Democratic defeat he said he had not been paying any attention to politics since the adjournment of the senate but that he had been devoting the time to getting well and was in much better condition than he had been for some time.

He said that the cause of the defeat were serious and it was hard to tell what particular thing was most influential. He said that in political matters as in battle men are no particular cause. In some cases causes were local ones and not due to anything the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

Nothing the Democratic party had done. The causes which existed in 1892, when the Republicans were defeated continued now, whatever they were and the Democratic party was suffering from the action of the people just as the Republicans did at that election. He did not think that the defeat of the Democratic party would be lasting, but that everything would be all right after a while. The senator does not seem to be very much depressed with the result, but being it only temporary.

Senator Charles H. Gibson called at the custom house yesterday to pay his respects to Sub-Treasurer Hammon. Like the other Democratic leaders, Mr. Gibson was greatly surprised at the result of the elections, but would not express any views as to its cause.

HIS SIN FOUND HIM OUT.

Strange Story of a Grave Robbery Which Restored the Dead to Life.

Juliet, the daughter of a prosperous French gentleman, was afflicted with a disorder of the heart. She one day fell dead, as was supposed, and after a suitable time was laid away in the family vault. Her body was arrayed in her first ball dress, with her rings, bracelets, necklaces and other jewelry. Her father, prostrated with grief, returned to the house and sought his chamber. His valet, who had assisted in the burial, waited upon him, tended to his wants and retired. The gentleman passed a sad and terrible night. It was cold, the wind howled outside, the snow flew, and he could think only of his beloved daughter in the tomb.

Suddenly, at 3 o'clock in the morning, he was startled by the ringing of the front doorbell. He jumped to his feet, wondering who could arrive at such an hour.

Again the bell rang. The servants either did not hear it or feared to go to the door. He took a candle and descended the stairs, but before opening the door demanded, "Who is there?"

There was no answer, and in his weakness and grief, feeble with fright, he slowly opened the door. He was not prepared to see a ghastly figure, dressed all in white. He fell back, uttering, "Who are you?"

"It is I, papa!"

It was his daughter. He thought he was going crazy. He recoiled from her and motioned her back with his hand.

"Do not fear, I am not dead. Someone has robbed me of one of my rings and cut off my finger. The blood began to run, and that revived me."

He saw then that she was covered with blood. Then, recovering himself, he apprehended the good fortune that had come to him. He took her to his chamber and rang for his valet to rekindle the fire, procure some nourishment and go for the doctor. But when the man entered he uttered a piercing cry and expired. It was he who had broken into the tomb, knowing that the corpse had been attired with valuable jewels, and that her hand and left ear, as he supposed, dangled. When he saw her standing in the room, he thought it was her ghost come back to denounce him, and he was frightened to death.—Paris Journal.

Hang or Marry.

In the feudal days of England, when noblemen thought it no disgrace to steal their neighbors' cattle, a baron protected his vassals from the aristocratic cattle lifter by hanging outright those taken red handed without waiting for the slow process of the law.

When William Scott was a young boy, his father, who made one night a farmer on Sir Gideon Murray's lands. While driving off a herd of cattle he was caught, and, being brought before Sir Gideon, ordered to be hanged. Hanging a cattle thief was such an everyday affair that Sir Gideon went about his ordinary business. But his wife, hearing that a handsome youth of a good family was to be executed, sought her husband and indignantly exclaimed:

"But, Gideon, what do I hear? You talk the life of the winsome young Laird of Gordon, who I found all these issues in the house of your son-in-law?"

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

"You're right, Mungie, my dear," replied the baron, grasping the situation. "Willie shall take our muckle would Mag, or else he'll stretch for it."

The helpless prisoner consented, and, much to his wife's surprise, returned home with a bride from the neighbor's house he had ridden out to marry.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal B